Items of Note:

- The February Tuesday Forum featured Maine author, John R. Cobb. John read from his two books (Judith: A Quoddy Tale and Cemetery Trees, brought a slideshow of beautiful photographs, and shared anecdotes about writing and his travels throughout Downeast Maine. Attendees enjoyed a light luncheon, and John donated a copy of each book to be used as raffle prizes for attendees.
- Tech Tuesday continues to be a success, as we have several patrons that gather monthly to learn more about their gadgets, and to get assistance with specific problems. In order to accommodate those patrons who prefer a daytime meeting, we plan to offer Tech Tuesday on an early afternoon next month. We may find the need for both a daytime and evening program.
- The “Gateway Speaker Series @ The Old Town Public Library” hosted one program in February—“Legal Documents All Seniors Need” with attorney, Kerry Clark Jordan. This informative program for senior citizens is developing into quite a popular bi-monthly event. We appreciate the opportunity to collaborate with the Gateway Seniors Without Walls organization, to provide quality programming in our community.
- 5495 materials checked out
